MAYOR SANDERS ENCOURAGES SAN DIEGANS TO 'DINE OUT FOR LIFE' ON APRIL 26TH

40 Area Restaurants, Bars and Coffee Shops To Donate 25% of Thursday's Proceeds To Benefit The Center's HIV/AIDS Prevention Programs for Youth and Latinos and Direct Services for People Living With HIV/AIDS

Mayor Jerry Sanders today announced his support for "Dining Out For Life," a one-day HIV/AIDS fund-raising effort involving 40 area restaurants, bars and coffee shops which have pledged to donate 25 percent of their food and beverage receipts taken in on Thursday, April 26th. The Mayor, along with Councilmembers Toni Atkins and Kevin Faulconer, is encouraging all San Diegans to participate by enjoying breakfast, lunch or dinner (or all three!) at one of the participating establishments.

"Dining Out For Life" is an annual HIV/AIDS fund-raising effort started in 1991 that takes place in over 30 cities across the United States and Canada. This is the first year that San Diego has participated. All the proceeds raised in San Diego will stay in San Diego, benefiting the San Diego LGBT Community Center's HIV/AIDS prevention programs for youth and Latinos, as well as direct services provided by The Center for people living with HIV/AIDS.

"As medical treatment for HIV/AIDS continues to improve and more people are living with the disease longer, AIDS service providers find themselves needing increased financial assistance to be able to keep up with an increased demand for services. Additionally, as HIV infection rates continue to rise in the women's, Latino, African-American and Asian-Pacific Islander communities, new prevention and outreach strategies need to be developed, and these cost money. 'Dining Out For Life' is a unique and enjoyable way for San Diegans to fund these worthwhile endeavors. I encourage all San Diegans to participate on April 26th by dining out at one of the 40 participating restaurants, bars or coffee shops."

-- Mayor Jerry Sanders
